of the Delaware Theatre Company.

WELCOME

Dear Friends and Patrons of Delaware Theatre Company,

Welcome to the 24th Wine Feast & Auction, generously supported by our title sponsor Bouchaine. We're delighted that you've chosen to spend this special evening with us. For over 23 years, this event was a cornerstone, not just in Delaware Theatre Company's fundraising efforts, but in introducing new friends to the theatre. In fact, it's one of the greatest pleasures of the evening to see such a wonderful mix of stalwart supporters and new faces. We are thrilled to have reclaimed this event and continue its successes towards the future.

Whether you've been an ardent subscriber, or are just meeting Delaware Theatre Company tonight, we hope you will continue your participation in our theatre after the Wine Feast. Whether it's our upcoming productions of the beautifully crafted play The City of Conversation, or the family favorite A Christmas Carol, or one of our award-winning Education & Community Engagement programs which serve students at risk, we are sure to have something that will entertain and inspire you.

It is that breadth of programming and abiding commitment to our community that have marked over 38 years of artistic excellence at Delaware Theatre Company. But none of this is possible without you and we are grateful that you have chosen to support DTC by attending tonight's 24th Wine Feast & Auction.

Delaware Theatre Company is honored to be the only theatre in Delaware developing new works for Broadway. Tonight kicks off another exciting chapter in the theatre's history. We are excited to announce the public phase of a $4 million capital campaign aimed at updating and enhancing the technology of the 30-year old building we call home - while creating a New Ventures fund that would allow us to invest more in to Broadway-bound artistic ventures. This is the first time in over 20 years that the theatre is approaching the public to raise these kind of funds, and I ask that you consider making a meaningful investment in to the Delaware Theatre Company's artistic future.

On behalf of the Board, staff and artists at the Delaware Theatre Company, thank you for celebrating with us tonight. We hope you'll enjoy tonight's fine food and wine as well as the live and silent auctions.

WELCOME

Dear Friends and Fellow Wine Lovers,

Welcome and thank you for attending the Delaware Theatre Company Wine Feast and Auction! We are thrilled to be a part of this inaugural event - a refreshing revival of a fantastic event benefitting the Delaware Theatre Company.

The arts are an anchor to our community in so many ways: contributing to economic vitality, strengthening our children's educational experiences, and preserving and promoting our cultural heritage. That's why the three of us are so deeply committed to encouraging a thriving arts community.

We would like to extend a special "thank you" to the Delaware Art Museum for allowing us to host this event in such a beautiful venue. Collaboration among organizations is so important in maintaining a strong and healthy cultural landscape in Wilmington.

The magnificent array of fine wines, food, and art prepared this evening is the product of many hours of planning and effort by our Wine Feast Committee. This committee of volunteers has worked for months and we are deeply grateful to each and every member.

To all of the wine merchants, restaurateurs, and generous sponsors who made this evening possible, thank you! We are grateful to all who have contributed to make this evening and the Delaware Theatre Company's 38th anniversary season so very special.

Thank you again for attending this evening. Please eat, drink, and be merry!

MAKE A DIFFERENCE. HELP CREATE OUR FUTURE.

This is the first time in more than twenty years that Delaware Theatre Company has engaged the public with a capital campaign. We ask for your help as we create a New Ventures Fund for the purpose of developing new plays and musicals with an eye for the Broadway stage, while we make significant upgrades to our facility and production equipment.

HELP US GET TO 100%

Through your gift today, you can make a significant investment in the future of Delaware Theatre Company and the arts community in Delaware.

why now?

Because of this exponential growth, it has become evident that we must update and upgrade our equipment and infrastructure as well as raise additional funds to continue developing new works. With your help, Delaware Theatre Company aims to establish a New Ventures Fund and make capital improvements to fulfill our vision.

new ventures

A New Ventures Fund enables us to develop larger shows and enhance the audience experience through heightened production values. In turn, this brings more visitors to the theatre and community, infusing cash into the local economy. Delaware Theatre Company will eventually receive additional earned income through royalties from the new works developed as a result of the New Ventures Fund.

capital improvements

Theatrical technology has advanced while most of Delaware Theatre Company's production equipment remains outdated. In order to attract top artists and build an engaged audience, critical updates must be made in the following areas: scenic, lighting, sound, and facilities. A full list of improvements is available on the capital campaign website.

Now is the time to continue the momentum and increase the investment in Delaware Theatre Company.

Value $200-$300 Donated by Estate of Ellice MacDonald

Founded in 1825 by Long John McDonald, nestled under Britain's highest mountain, Ben Nevis is one of the oldest licensed distilleries in Scotland. Although now owned by a Japanese distiller, this offering was bottled by John MacDonald (a direct descendant) of Long John Distillers in the 1970s. Using the founder's divine secrets of pure clean water filtered by the peat bogs behind the distillery, barley with exactly the right amount of protein, and the "reek" of peat smoke from the fire lit during the manufacturing process. Despite the high strength of this product, it is highly regarded by the passionate whiskey drinker. Jim Murray of the "Whiskey Bible" says - "Mouthwatering, lots of cereal, spice and kick." Matured in oak casks, the fill level is ¼" into the shoulder. We think you will find this one of the smoothest Scotches you have ever tried. Take home a cult find tonight!

From traditional style, to modern, to off the charts describes this lot! The Neri is a modern styled Brunello. Aged in small oak barrels, this opaque beauty shows masses of intense blackberry, chocolate, smoke and licorice flavors, leading to a finish of exceptional length and balance. Drink now-2021. 92 pts. RP, 97 pts. WS. Biondi Santi is one of the most staunchly traditional houses, as this is where the original Brunello clone of Sangiovese was discovered. The 2004 is intriguing, with silky, refined tannins framing a core of perfumed dark red fruits. Drink now-2029. 90 pts. RP. Dal Forno's wines throw so much at you at once, machine gun style, you need time to sit back and savor the experience! Opening with huge intensity, this dense, syrupy wine shows bitter chocolate, blackberry preserves, rich fig cake, and baking spices, all leading to big, burly tannins. Drink 2018-2035. 93 pts. RP, 92 pts. WS. Salut!

LIVE AUCTION LOTS

LOT 14: DOMINUS VERTICAL FROM THE VERY BEGINNING

1983,84,85,86,87,88,89 Dominus, Estate, Napa (7 Bottles)

Value $1,015-$1,180 Donated by Mike & Cindy Barko & Debra Adelman

This historic vineyard, originally planted by George Yount in 1836, produced the great Inglenooks of the 40s and 50s. Christian Moueix, winemaker for the famous Chateau Petrus of Pomerol, partnered with John Daniel's daughters to produce these legends. It has always been a stern wine, needing time in decanter to show its depth. The '83 was the most tannic, but shows rich currant and black cherry. 90 pts. RP, 87 pts. WS. The '84 is complex and intense, with layers of cedar, currant, and anise. 92 pts. RP, 90 pts. WS. The '85 stands out for its smoky, ripe cassis, earthy nose and full-bodied concentrated flavors. 91 pts. RP, 95 pts. WS. The 1986 is still a rich, blockbuster wine, showing dense, concentrated, and copious cassis fruit. 93 pts. RP, WS. The 1987's version was one of the great wines of the vintage, with complex, earthy currant, leather and anise notes. 96 pts. RP, 92 pts. WS. The 1988 brought a tough vintage, as over half the crop was deemed unworthy. But that produced one of the top wines of the vintage, with excellent concentration and a long, rich finish. 91 pts. RP, 87 pts. WS. The '89 was the wine of the vintage - rich, dense and leathery, with extraordinary concentration and rich, lingering finish. 92 pts. RP, WS. Begin or finish off your Dominus vertical now!

LOT 15: EXCELLENT VINTAGE, EXCELLENT WINE = YOUR PLEASURE

2000 Ch. Haut Bailly, Grand Cru, Pessac-Leognan (3 Bottles)

2000 Ch. Le Bon Pasteur, Pomerol (3 Bottles)

2000 Ch. Montrose, 2nd Growth, St. Estephe (3 Bottles)

Value $1,695-$2,715 Donated by Michael & Ellen Kullman

Widely regarded as a "Vintage of the Century" at the time, the 2000 vintage continues to shine. The stylish Haut Bailly shows notes of lead pencil, raspberries, black currants and plum on a well-balanced medium body. This gracious lady will drink well until 2025. 91 pts. RP, 92 pts. WS. Michel Rolland is the talented oenologist behind the Pasteur. With a big, sweet kiss of cedar, roasted herbs, raspberry and smoke flavors pumping along, this full-bodied Pomerol will hold till 2020. 93 pts. RP, WS. The Clerc Milon is aging impressively, with espresso, humus, cassis and leather notes. Fleshy, with sweet tannins leading to a cedary, long finish, you can drink or hold till 2025. 92pts. RP, 90pts. WS. The Montrose is a special wine, with still youthful notes of tobacco, black currant, crushed rock, and warmed fig. Rich, refined and deep, you should hold till 2020-2050. 95pts. RP, 93pts. WS. Triple your pleasure, quadruple your fun and take this case home to your cellar!

LIVE AUCTION LOTS

LOT 16: EXTRAORDINARY LARGE FORMAT CHAMPAGNE LOT

NV Veuve Clicquot, Brut Champagne, Yellow Label (1ea 6L, 3L, 1.5L)

Value $1,280-$1,780 Donated by Veuve Clicquot, Break Thru Beverage

Let the Champagne lover in you loose on this one! The symbol of Veuve since 1772, the Yellow Label is a blend of 5-6 vintages of Pinot Noir, Meunier, and Chardonnay to ensure the consistency of the house style. A perfect balance between power and finesse, its complexity comes from the predominant presence of Pinot Noir and reserve barrels. This elegant and finessed lady can be paired with duck, blinis, sushi, seafood, or of course, served as the traditional celebratory aperitif! This bottling is enjoyable now or will age for years in the large formats. Grace your cellar with these unusual sizes.

LOT 17: CALIFORNIA SAMPLER OF SIMPLE TREASURES

2010 Alexander Valley, Cyrus, Sonoma (1 Bottle)

2010 Beringer, Cabernet, Private Reserve, Napa (1 Bottle)

2012 Freemark Abbey, Merlot, Napa (1 Bottle)

2012 Duckhorn, Cabernet, Napa (1 Bottle)

2013 Stag's Leap Winery, The Investor, Napa (1 Bottle)

Value $290-$470 Donated by Branmar Liquors

Start your journey with the Bordeaux blend Cyrus, named for the namesake of both the valley and the winery, Cyrus Alexander. Only 8 hand-selected lots create the dense lush notes of ripe plum, blackberry, mocha and smoke. Drink now-2021. Beringer's finest Cabernet is dense, rich and powerful, with notes of lead pencil, cassis, smoke, wet rock and road tar. Full bodied, with rich, chewy tannins, you could enjoy this now or cellar until 2028. 96 pts. RP, 94 pts. WS. The fruit-dominated Freemark Merlot is lush, hedonistic, sensual and appealing with zesty red currant, cedar and spiced herbs. Drink now-2022. 92 pts. RP, 87 pts. WS. Generous and graceful notes of black raspberry, red currant, vanilla bean and milk chocolate will greet your tongue. Drink now-2020. Tapestry is a blend of Bordeaux varietals that offers up sweet black cherry, licorice, and spice box flavors that are supple and elegant. 92 pts. RP, 88 pts. WS. Established in 1893, Stag's Leap's Investor is an intriguing blend of Merlot, Petite, Cab and Malbec. Showing black currants, blueberry, and white flowers on a full-bodied frame, this will drink well until 2031. 90 pts. RP.

LIVE AUCTION LOTS

LOT 18: RISING SUPERSTAR FROM THE ROTHSCHILDS

2009 Ch. Duhart-Milon-Rothschild, 4th Growth, Pauillac (6 Bottles)
Value $570-$1,050 Donated by David Lunger

Keep an eye on this property - it sells for less than Lafite's second label, Carruades. A blend of 63% Cab and 37% Merlot, the nose is a mix of big, sweet, toasty cassis, licorice, lead pencil and cedar. Viscous and full-bodied roasted plum, black currant and smoked mesquite will dance on your palate. Concentrated and broad, this luscious lady will drink well until 2047. 87 pts. RP, 92 pts. WS.

LOT 19: PERFECT ENDINGS TO A GREAT DINNER

2001 Ch. La Tour Blanche, 1st Cru, Sauterne (3 375ml Bottles)
2001 Ch. Rieussec, Grand Cru, Sauterne (3 375ml Bottles)
2003 Ch. Climens, 1st Cru, Barsac (3 375ml Bottles)
Value $610-$840 Donated by Larry Baldini

Leave the d'Yquem for the rich folks - there is enjoyment aplenty here. The Blanche has long been the "insider's" Sauterne of the vintage, with its potent honeyed, candied lemon nose. Well balanced with fine acidity, the unctuous honeyed fruit lasts for minutes on the finish. 93 pts. WS, 96 pts. RP. Honey, caramel, and marmalade accent the bouquet of the Rieussec, leading to a fabulous palate of concentrated ripe and botrytis fruit. With electric acidity leading to a mind-blowing finish, this belongs in your cellar. 100 pts. WS, 93 pts. RP. The Climens is a racy wine, with spicy honey, dried apricot and mango palate. Ripe, round and balanced, this is a beauty, not a beast. 96 pts. WS, 90 pts. RP. All of these will last for decades.

LOT 20: DTC OVATION MAGNUM MADNESS II

2001 Duckhorn, Cabernet, Patzimar Vny., Napa (1 1.5L Magnum)
2001 Jordan, Cabernet, Sonoma (1 1.5L Magnum)

2004 Etude, Cabernet, Napa (1 1.5L Magnum)
2005 Ramey, Cabernet, Napa (1 1.5L Magnum)
Value $ 830-$880 Donated by Michael Schubert

Start the madness with the single vineyard Duckhorn, with its stunning perfume of sweet licorice, chocolate, cedar and black currants. Abundant blueberry and spice notes unfold gracefully to an impressive finish. Drink now-2031. 93 pts. RP, 91 pts. WS. At this stage in its life, the Jordan is showing flavors of red and black cherry, with attractive, earthy notes of leather, tobacco and cedar leading to a rich, smooth finish. Drink now-2022. 88 pts. WS. The Phelps is elegant and sexy, with ripe, vibrant black currant, cedar and spice notes for a well defined full body. Drink now-2020. 90 pts. RP, 88 pts. WS. David Ramey's Cab is ripe and fleshy, with sweet, tarry, black currants, chocolate, cedar and wood smoke-like flavors. Drink

LOT 22: HISTORIC PROPERTY PRODUCED GRAPPA

NV Castello di Gabbiano, Grappa di Chianti Classico (1 Bottle)
Value $60-$100 Donated by Linda Collier

In honor of the late Leslie Burgess, we offer this bottle from his cellar, given to Linda in a thank you gesture for her help with the original DTC Wine Auction. Xavi DeCaire, Jean Scalessa and Linda started the event with Delaware Singers Auction, which was disbanded. The first year, the auction was technically illegal but Mike Castle was the guest auctioneer, and since the liquor commission was appointed by him, they let it go. By the next year, we were legal! This bottle has been standing upright since received, as all good grappa should be stored. It should be served unchilled, in a shot glass, after a very good meal. You can add it to espresso, or serve alone. This cask conditioned grappa is 84 proof.

LOT 23: A VERY BIG BOTTLE OF LYNCH BAGES

2001 Ch. Lynch Bages, 5th Growth, Pauillac (1 3L Double Magnum)
Value $800-$1,100 Donated by Anonymous

This fully mature Bordeaux will tempt you with aromas of tapenade, licorice, and red currants. Elegant and charming, with soft, gorgeous tannins leading to a good, long finish. In this large format, this easy going lady should drink well until 2025. 88 pts. RP, 90 pts. WS.

2. The buyer receives a tax deduction for the difference in value between the amount paid at auction and the deductible amount provided to the theatre by the donor.
